Prelude Welcome & Announcements

Please stand as you are able.

Assisting Minister 1: Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, whose home is heaven and earth, whose salvation is sure.

C: Amen.

Assisting Minister 1: Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Assisting Minister 1: Long-expected God,

C: we confess that we look to ourselves for the peace and security only you can provide. We reach for swords and spears, reluctant to release our grip on the ways of war. We become impatient while waiting and weary of keeping awake. Free us from self-reliance, and teach us to live in harmony with our neighbors. Increase our trust in God's timing, and awaken us to your advent among us, that we may abound in the hope you have promised.

Amen.

Assisting Minister 1: God judges us not as we deserve, but according to God's own righteousness. ☩ You are freed and forgiven, saved by grace, and ready to welcome the Savior.

C: Amen.

Gathering Hymn    ELW 242 Awake! Awake and Greet the New Morn

Assisting Minister 2: Bless us as we light the first candle of this wreath. Baptize us with the fire of your Spirit, that we may be a light shining in the darkness welcoming others as Christ has welcomed us, for he is our light and our salvation. Blessed be God forever.

C: Amen.

Hymn Sing

ELW 715 Christ Be Our Light vs. 1&2

Assisting Minister 1: "Christ, Be Our Light" is a popular modern hymn by British Catholic composer Bernadette Farrell. First published in 1993, the hymn is known for its call to be Christ's light in the world, drawing inspiration from Scripture (Isaiah 60:1-3) and focusing on themes of social justice, hope, and unity, quickly becoming a favorite across denominations for its prayerful melody and meaningful lyrics about serving others. Bernadette Farrell was born 1957, and is a prolific English Catholic musician known for her social justice advocacy. Farrell was educated at King's College of London and then entered the Guildhall School of Music and Drama, UK, for further study. A prolific composer of worship music since the 1980s, she has published more than 75 songs and one Catholic Mass. She has worked as a diocesan music advisor for Southwark and Westminster and as a workshop presenter both in the UK and the USA. Christ Be Our Light is one of the most downloaded contemporary hymns, even topping lists during the pandemic when churches streamed services.

ELW 248 People Look East vs. 1&2

Assisting Minister 2: "People, Look East" is an Advent hymn written by Eleanor Farjeon in 1928, using the traditional French folk melody Besançon. The hymn's text, first published as "Carol of Advent" in The Oxford Book of Carols, uses rich natural imagery of preparation for Christ's arrival. It symbolizes "Love" as an anticipated guest, using themes of nature and light to prepare the heart and home for the coming of the Savior. Eleanor Farjeon born in 1881 was an English writer of children's stories and poems, who also wrote "Morning Has Broken". "Nellie," as she was affectionately called by her parents, was a small, shy young girl. She later cared for her dying mother for the twelve years of a long and difficult illness. One brother, Harry, was a composer; and her other brothers, Joseph and Herbert, were writers. Farjeon had a vivid imagination. Her father encouraged her to write from the age of five. At age eighteen, she penned the libretto for an operetta composed by her brother Harry. In spite of her shyness, she participated in a circle of talented artists, writers, and musicians. This joyful Advent hymn has the spirit of a Christmas carol, but with an imaginative Advent text. Singing this carol is indeed one way to prepare both our homes and hearts for the coming of the Savior.

ELW 257 O Come, O Come Emmanuel      vs. 1&2

Assisting Minister 1: "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" is a beloved Advent hymn with medieval origins, stemming from ancient Latin chants called "O Antiphons," used in monasteries from around the 9th century, which were later combined into a single hymn in the 1100s.

(Veni Veni Emmanuel) and translated into English by John Mason Neale in 1851, preserving the longing for the Messiah. Its lyrics draw on Old Testament prophecies to describe Christ with titles like "Root of Jesse," "Dayspring," and "Key of David," anticipating His coming.

The tune is a 15th-century French melody, originally used for a funeral procession, but its haunting minor key perfectly suited the Advent theme. The hymn expresses Israel's deep longing for the Messiah, referencing Old Testament prophecies about His coming to rescue them from sin and exile, culminating in the promise of God becoming "Emmanuel" (God with us). While sung in liturgical traditions for centuries, Neale's translation made it accessible, and it's now a staple of Christmas music.

Apostle's Creed

Assisting Minister 2: God has made us his people through our Baptism into Christ. Living together in trust and hope, we confess our faith.

C: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

Assisting Minister 2: In our waiting and watching, we come to you in prayer, O God, trusting your promise to renew the church, the nations, and the whole creation.

A brief silence.

Assisting Minister 2: ....God of grace,

C: hear our prayer.

Assisting Minister 2: Draw near to us, O God, as we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy through Jesus Christ, Emmanuel.

C: Amen.

The Peace

Assisting Minister 2: The peace of the Lord be with you all.

C: And also with you.

The Lord's Prayer

Assisting Minister 1: Let us pray together the words our Savior gave us:

on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
